Entered at the Post Office at Morristown, Tenu. as second class matter.]

TERMS OF THE GAZETTE.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION .- One year (52 issues) $2; six months, $1; three first insertion, $1; each subsequent insertion, 50 cents; displayed advertisements will be charged according to the space occupied at above rates. TO REGULAR ADVERTISERS us of NOTICES IN LOCAL COLUMNS-10 cents per line for first insertion and 8 cents that no benefit from such violation per line for each additional insertion.

OBITUARY NOTICES, Tributes of Respect and Cards of Thanks charged for ALL BILLS for advertising are due when contracted and payable on demand. COMMUNICATIONS must be accompan writer in order to receive attention.

MORRISTOWN GAZETTE

Subscription Price, $2.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 15, 1880.

HAYES' MESSAGE.

VIEWS ON THE ENFORCE MENT OF THE CONSTI-TUTIONAL AMEND. MENTS.

WANTS THE GREENBACKS RETIRED AND THE SILVER DOLLAR MADE HEA-VIER.

Some Vigorous Logic and Good Sense on the Polygamy Question.

Service Reform.

sentatives and Senate, 6th Dec.

A FREE BALLOT AND FAIR COUNT. Continued opposition to the full and free enjoyment of the rights of citizenship, conferred upon the colored people by the recent amendments to the Constitution, still prewails in several of the late slaveholdbeen manifested in the recent election to any large extent in acts of violence or intimidation. It has, however, by fraudulent practices in connection with the ballots, with the regulations as to the places and manner of voting, and with counting, returning and canvassing the ed citizens. counted. With this question right- reorganized. ly settled, the country will be re education, finance, and other impor-

Trusteres and to buring their our base.

preciate the value of the victory achieved. This determination pro-our country, or to any of their interests. The inviolability of the amendments rests upon the funda mental principle of our government.

prevailed, it is diminishing, and is well-considered action is taken by Congress. I trust the House of which have the right to judge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of their own members, will see to it for superior inducements, both as to rats letter or spirit of the fifteen smend-

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM. In my former annual messages, I ied by the true name and address of the officers and place-men employed. * * * * * * and security of the people.

The most serious obstacle, however, to an improvement of the civil practice, under what is known as from our currency is to narrow and was accustomed to say, "knew when encroached upon by members of portant interests. The United States Congress. The first step in the re- produces more silver than any other he was sure his son would never im form of the civil service must be a country, and is directly interested in bibe any bad habits with the wine complete divorce between Congress maintaining it as one of the twe he drank at his father's table. Wine Following are the main points in and the Executive in the matter of precious metals which furnish the had always been as free as water in the last annual message of President appointments. The corrupt doctrine coinage of the world. It will, in my the Cleveland family, and from first Hayes, read to the House of Repre- that "to the victors belong the judgmee', contribute to this result if to last there had never been a his first offence!" Here the doer doesn't annoy me to have you with spoils," is inseparable from Congress will repeal so much of ex- drunkard by that name. The judge After congratulating the country sional patronage as the established isting legislation as requires the was accustomed to close his remarks on the peaceful result of the late na. rule and practice of parties in power, coinage of silver dollars containing on this subject by declaring that if tional election, and the cheerful ac- It comes to be understood by appli- only 4122 grains of silver, and in its such a thing should happen that quiescence therein, the President cants for office, and by the people stead will authorize the Secretary Rodney should ever become the generally, that Representatives and of the Treasury to coin silver dol- worse for liquor, and he found it out, Senators are entitled to disburse the lars of equivalent value as bullion, then Rodney and he parted compapatronage of their respective dis- with gold dollars. This will defraud my for the rest of their lives." Mrs.

visions of section 1767, and of the metals. sections following, of the Revised votes cast, been successful in de- the enforcement of the law depends China, on subjects of great interest he put his arm about the slight figfeating the exercise of the right pre- on those who practice and uphold to the relations of the two countries. ure and looked down into her eyes servative of all rights, the right of the crime. It can only be surpress- enabled the commissioners to pro- with unniterable leve. "I shall suffrage, which the Constitution ex- | ed by taking away the political pow- ceed at once upon their mission. drink only the mildest Catawba and pressly confers upon our enfranchis- et of the sect which encourages and The Imperial Government was pre- only just enough of that to keep up It is the desire of the good peo- to enact suitable laws to protect the attention to the matters brought un I wonder if I were to get a little top ple of the whole country that sec- Territories is ample. It is not a der negotiation, and the conferences heavy," he continued in the same tionalism as a factor in our politics case for half way measures. The proceeded with such rapidity and tone of bandinage, "if father would should disappear. They prefer that political power of the Mormon sect success that, on the 17th of Novem | turn me out as he has always threatno section of the country should be is increasing; it controls now one of ber last, two treaties were signed at ened!" "Rodney, he would!" Mrs. united in solid opposition to any our wealthiest and most populous Pekin, one relating to the introduc- Cleveland replied, with more emphaother section. The disposition to Territories. It is extending steadi- tion of Chinese into this country, sis than seemed necessary to her refuse a prompt and hearty obedi- ly into other Territories. Wherever and one relating to commerce. Mr. laughing son. "I have suffered more ence to the equal rights amendments it goes it establishes polygamy and Trescot one of the commissioners, with nervous horror about that nosto the Constitution, is all that now sectarian political power. The sanc. is now on his way home bringing the sible circumstance than with everystands in the way of a complete tity of marriage and the family re- treaties, and it is expected that they thing else I have had to bear put obliteration of sectional lines in our lation are the corner stone of our will be received in season to be laid together. Oh! my boy, you will political contests. As long as either American society and civilization, before the Senate early in January, never know how cruel and wicked it of these amendments is flagrantly Religious liberty and the separation IMPROVEMENT OF THE MISSISSIPPI. violated or disregarded. It is safe to of Church and State are among assume that the people who placed the elementary ideas of free insti- the Mississippi and its tributaries to disinherit him if he succumbed to them in the Constitution, as embody- tutions. To re-establish the inter- is a matter of transcendent import- it. Oh! Rodney, for your mother's ing the legitimate results of the war ests and principles which polygamy ance. These great water-ways com- sake be careful." At this moment for the Union, and who believe them and Mormonism have imperiled, prise a system of inland transporta- dinner was appounced, and Rodney to be wise and necessary, will con- and to fully reopen to intelligent tinue to act together, and to insist and virtuous immigrants of all that they shall be obeyed. The creeds that part of our domain paramount question still is, as to which has been, in a great degree, the enjoyment of the right by every closed to general immigration by American citizen who has the re- intolerant and immoral institutions, terest in such unequalled facilities. This last quotation was from his quisite qualifications, to freely cast it is recommended that the govern. for cheap transportation. Geo- father's oft-repeated words, and Mrs. his vote and to have it honestly ment of the Territory of Utah be graphically, commercially, and po- Cleveland smiled a faint little smile

I recommend that Congress prolieved of the contentions of the past, vide for the government of Utah by country. These channels of com. There is nothing sure but the un bygones will indeed be bygones, and a Governor and Judges, or Commis. munication and interchange are the foreseen," says an old French propolitical and party issues with re sieners, appointed by the President preperty of the Nation. Its juris- verb, and it certainly seemed true in spect to economy and efficiency of and confirmed by the Senate-a diction is paramount over their wa- this case. Dinner passed off in ex government analagous to the provisional government established for the territory northwest of the Ohio, tant subjects, will then receive their by the ordinance of 1787. If, however, it is deemed best to continue ance to and nullification of the re- the existing form of local governsults of the war, will unite together ment, I recommend that the right to in resolute purpose for their support | vote, hold office, and sit on juries in all who maintain the authority of the the Territory of Utah, be confined government and the perpetuity of to those who neither practice nor up the Union, and who adequately ap- hold polygamy. FOREIGN RELATIONS.

The President reports the country | pecket. on amicable terms with the nations of the earth and hopes the fishery troubles that have grown out of divergent interpretations of the treaty of Washington by England and this government, may - seedily be settled They are the selemen expression of to the satisfaction of both.

the will of the people of the United FINANCIAL-RETIRE THE OREENBACK. Happily, the history of the late dition of commerce and government- to surpass all bounds, has consider election shows that in many parts of al finance and pronouncing them ably cooled.

the country where opposition to the very sound and satisfactory, the afteenth amendment has heretofere President says: There are still in existence, uncancelled, $346.681,006 ikely to cease altogether, if firm and of United States legal-tender notes. These notes were authorized as a war measure, made necessary by the RATES OF ADVERTISING .- One inch Representatives and the Senate exigencies of the conflict in which Congress, an issue of legal tender paper money. That it served well ment is thoroughly investigated, and the purpose for which it was created home from college for a week, and is not questioned, but the employshall accrue to any person or party. ment of the notes as paper money ment of the object for which they have asked the attention of Congress | were provided, was not contemplatto the urgent necessity of a reforma- ed by the framers of the law under the lady several years younger than tion of the civil service system of which they were issued. These the Government. My views con- notes long since became like any him by keeping open house, secondcerning the dangers of patronage, or other pecuniary obligation of the ing his desires and his whims with appointments for personal or partis. Government-a debt to be paid, and, astonishing patience, for Judge an considerations, have been strength when paid, to be cancelled as mere Cleveland was known to be someened by my observation and experi- evidence of an indebtedness ne long thing of an antecrat, and had been ence in the Executive office, and I er existing. I therefore repeat what | heard to say that his will was always believe these dangers threaten the was said in the annual message of law in his own house. The gentlestability of the Government. Abuses last year, that the retirement from man's will was always law on the so serious in their nature cannot be circulation of United States notes, bench and while very generous to permanently telerated. They tend with the capacity of legal tender in the poor and suffering, was sure to to become more alarming with the private contracts, is a step to be give evil doers the severest penalenlargement of administrative ser taken in our progress towards a safe ties the statutes afforded. Judge vice, as the growth of the country in and stable currency, which should Cleveland's father had always had population increases the number of be accepted as the policy and duty sideboard in his house, and the judge of the Government and the interest insisted on perpetuating the custom,

> SILVER DOLLAR. service, and especially to reform in recognizes both gold and silver as land believed in wine at dinner, and the method of appeintment and re- the only true legal-tender money, a drink of brandy whenever he fel moval, has been found to be the To basish either of these metals like it. "A man with a mind," he the spoils system, by which the sp- limit the circulating medium of ex to leave off, and a man without a pointing power has been so largely change to the disparagement of im- mind would get drunk anyhow."

litically, they are the strongest tie at her son's exact reproduction of between the various sections of the the judge's manner. ters, and the plainest principles of public interest require their intelligent and careful supervision, with a As the young man never touched a view to their protection, improvement, and the enhancement of their

A New York paper says that eating ice cream will spoil a girl's complexion and make her feet grow big.

Love lightens the heart," says a writer. It has been known to have tion every young man at her table precisely the same effect upon the with the same motherly regard which

All of us who are worth anything nend our manhood in unlearning the follies or expatiating the mis-

Adeiina Patti, although she gets very high prices for singing in Berlin this season, "did not," says the London Globe, "meet with the ac customed evations. The enthusiasm. After sumarizing the general cos- which only two years ago appeared THREE THANKSGIVINGS.

Four years ago this present Thanksgiving, Judge Cleveland's house of- Co., N. H. was the scene of unusual festivities. The most extensive preparation had been the United States was then engaged. | made for the comfort and pleasure The preservation of the Nation's ex of some thirty or forty invited guests. istence required, in the judgment of for the judge was an old fashioned host and liked to entertain sumptuously. Rodney, the judge's son was had brought with him a few friends whose homes were too far away to indefinitely, after the accomplish- enable them to go and return in the short time allotted for a vacation. Mrs. Cleveland was a delicate lit-her husband, who delighted to please although his wife by persuasion, and even tears, had constantly used her The Constitution, in express terms influence against it. Judge Cleve-

no man, and will be in accordance Cleveland, who knew that her boy * * with familiar precedents. Congress, would be banished at once and for-It is recommended that an act be on several occasions, has altered the ever, if an accident of this kind passed defining the relations of mem- ratio of value between gold and sil | should occur, which, under the cirbers of Congress with respect to the ver, in order to establish it more cumstances, seemed to the anxious ing States. It has, perhaps, not appointment to office by the Presi - nearly in accordance with the actual mother more than likely, was always dent, I also recommend that the pro- ratio of value between the two ill at ease during the time of any extraordinary festivities. Just before sitting down to the sumptuous Statutes, comprising the tenure of- The provision made by Congress. Thanksgiving dinner, Mrs. Cleveoffice act, of March 2, 1867, be re- at its last session, for the expense land took advantage of a spare moof the commission which had been ment, to give her son the usual appointed to enter upon negotiations warning. "What a funny little Polygamy will not be abelished if with the Imperial Government of mother!" laughed the young man as sustains it. The power of Congress pared to give prempt and respectful the good will of the establishment. seems to me to put temptation be A comprehensive improvement of fore a young man and then threaten tion spread like net-work over a led his mother to her seat, and then large portion of the United States, leaning over her said softly; "! and navigable to the extent of many | wouldn't do snything to hurt you thousands of miles. Producers and for all the world, mother. Trust me, consumers alike, have a common in- for I'm a Cleveland, you know.

> cellent style, Rodney's behavior being as usual entirely satisfactory anything from the sideboard, Mrs. Cleveland's fears were quite lulled to rest. One of Rodney's friends seemed a little flushed after dinner, but after all Rodney's friend wasn't Rodney, although Mrs. Cleveland would have shielded from temptashe threw about her own son.

There were old-fashioned gamefor the children in the afternoon, and a seven o'clock tea. After tea Rodney and his friends went out for a stroll, and when at eleven o'clock the Thanksgiving party broke up. Mrs. Cleveland been growing stead ery effort made that human ingenui.

Were sent in all directions, and ev. sent free. Write for H. Address DAY KIDNEY PAD CO., Tourse, O. was sure that the worst had happen. dead, or purposely keeping out of other and you will not be deceived.

AND SERVICE OF THE PROPERTY OF

ed. I she could only induce the judge to go to bed, then there might | land's will had spread far and wide be a possibility that the belated parsy could come in and retire without being seen; for the judge was a good sleeper, usually dropped off as soon as his head touched the pillow. Bo no! the judge had made up his mind, and nothing that his wife also possessed considerable of his could say was of the slightest avail. At last he exclaimed, irritably : "Go to bed If you want to and let me alone. I tell you I am going to sit At last still another Thanksgiv up and find out what has kept those | ing day dawned upon the earth, and Rodney understood." The clock chimed out one, two, and still the judge sat erect in his

The judge frequently boasted that Judge Cleveland with an iron grip boy." led his wife to the library. Then | Sarah drew up the table, and hung his hold relaxed, and the heart brok- the kettle over the glowing fire en woman fell to the floor in a mer with the tears streaming down her dreadful affair, and Mrs. Cleveland don t chirp up a little," Sarah rereceived but one letter from her son. plied, "I don't think I was made to This was sent under covor to a be of any use in trouble," she conneighbor. Rodney was going abroad tinued, "for I always get to blubwith a friend, in hopes of getting bering so." something to do, so that he might "Oh, Sarah!" said Mrs. Cleveland continue his studies. At this time in the old agonizing tone, "if I only Mrs. Cleveland sent her son all the knew whether my boy was alive or meney she could raise without her dead. Tell me again what you husband s knowledge, and now an- think." other Thanksgiving day had rolled Sarah at that mement was adjust-

bim. Judge Cleveland kept open fork, and all of a sudden the bread house as usual, and his wife sat at fell to the fleor, and Sarah uttered a the head of his table and entertain- slight scream. She had seen a pair ed his guests; but they all knew of eyes peeping through the partly that her heart was not in the festiv- closed blinds, and had recognized ities, and when the wine sparkled in them at once. For a moment or two the glasses, and talk flowed freely she busied berself with her work, around the table, the mother's face abstaining carefully from looking was as ashen as when, on that awful again at the window, "I think, just night, she waited her son's return, as I always have, that Mr. Rodney There was no wineglass at her plate, is alive," the woman answered with and when the judge insisted on considerable deliberation, though teasting her, as was his custom on every nerve in her body was riogfestive occasions, his wife replied, ling with excitement, "and I think, No, I thank you, judge. I am not when somebody gets the best of him, thankful for wine, therefore you he'll come popping in upon you all must always excuse me." As this of a sudden. Mrs. Cleveland, il was the first time in a married life of | you'll please to hold this teasting twenty two years that Mrs. Cleve. fork a minute, I'll go out and get land had ever, in public or private. addressed a pointed remark to her husband, perhaps it was not strange to the floor, and Sarah passed carethat the judge had no answer ready. | lessly about the room, adjusting the A few mouths after this Judge

Cleveland died very suddenly; and when his will was opened, it was found that he had not only disinher ited his son, but had arranged his properly so that, in the event of his widow recalling her child, she should have only two-thirds of the estate. and this under a protest of such an inflammatory nature, that the lawyer who read the document stopped short several times, and looked round wonderingly on the assembled company. A third of the estate It is comfortable to the patient, positive in its of woul be more than enough to sup- rests, and the first curs for those painful and much dreaded affections, port the widow comfortably; but in Diabetes and Bright's Disease case that she accepted the amount, which the testator seemed to think very doubtful, she was to be driven from the homestead, and in every possible way straitened and annoyed. All those who knew Judge Cleveland well, felt sure that he would be hard to the last, but no one supposed that even his obstinancy could go so far as this. Friends flocked around to sympathize with his doubly bereaved woman. To the numerous questions of what she would do, Mrs. Clevefand made but one answer, and this was: "Help me to find my son;" and all understood from this that the property—the whole or a third that many times its cost in doctors' bills, madicines and the property—the whole or a third the property—the property—the whole or a third the property—the property—the he way. The news of Judge Cleve and a few of Rodney's intimate riends were convinced that the lasheory was correct. "He would nev er return to impovertsh his mother, hey said; for, although Rodney had much of his mother's gentleness, he father's doggedness, and would doubtless die rather than bring poverly to the mother he so idelized.

boys out so late. It looks very sus. the widow, childless and forsaken. picions to me, and if anything has sat alone in her home. She drove happened you know the result, wife, to church as usual in the morning, for I've been pretty careful for the and there was hardly a dry eve is ast ten years to see that you and the house, when the lonely woman. clad in the deepest mourning, walked slowly up the aisle, and took her seat in the deserted pew. Oh! how chair while his wife, pale as a ghost she prayed for help, and how far with terror, flitted from room to away seemed the divine hand! Afroom, and window to window, peer- ter the service was over, her friends ing out into darkness, listening for pressed round to speak to her, but some sign, until it seemed to her as her eyes seemed looking far away. if the very blood stood still in her and her manner was so strange, that veins. It was almost three o'clock it was not to be wondered at-they when her quick ear caught the sound | all thought the poor lady was losing of muffled voices by the back door, her mind. At noon she sat down The judge's hearing was as keen as to her solitary dinner; but she could his wife's on this occasion, and he not bear the great dinner-room. immediately sprang to the door and | with its memories of former Thanksthrew it wide open. It needed but givings, and the dinner was taken a glance to see that all of the young away untasted. In the afternoon nen had been drinking heavily. The several of the neighbors dropped in udge cast one glance of supreme but she refused herself to all, and disgust at the unsteady crowd, then when night came, she had tea made said in tones of thunder: "Get out in the little sitting-room, where she of here, the whole raft of you! You and Rodney used sometimes to take can send a message for your traps in their supper when the judge was the morning-you, Rodney, with the away. "Oh! do, for mercy's sake." rest; and never, as long as you live, said one of the servants, who had do you dare to cross my threshold, lived with Mrs. Cleveland ever since death you are no son of mine." Oh! vite somebody to come in and have husband!" shricked the wretched tea with you. It breaks my heart to mother, "let them come in I oh, for see you here alone!" "You shall my sake let them come in! Do not have tea with me, Sarah," said her turn your son from his home for this mistress, trying to smile, "for i was slammed in the five, by this me, and we will talk of the old times, time, almost sobered faces, and Sarah, when Rodney was a little cheeks. "I shall be awful poor A whole year passed after this company, Mrs. Clevetand, if you round without any more news of lug a slice of bread to the toasting

The sitting-room windows opened [Concluded on Fourth Page.]

while its cure of Gravel, Dropsy, Catarrh of the Bladder, Brickdust Deposit, Painful Urinating, High-Colored Urine, Nervous Weakness, and Pain in the Back seem more like miracles than cases of natural heating.

DELICATE FEMALES victims of wasted or prostrated energies, caused irregular habits, the abuse of nature, and menl or physical over-exertion find their greatest re ief in the use of DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, which strengthens and invigorates, and restores the

PAIN IN THE BACK. We say positively, and without fear of contradiction that DAY'S KIDNEY PAD is the only certain and permanent cure for every form of this pre-alent and distressing complaint. YOUNG MEN suffering from nervous and physical debility, loss of memory, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business or work, may be restored and manhood regained.

Avoid all kidney medicines which are taken into the system by way of the stomach; it is an old treatment well tried and proven medicine, though sometimes effecting apparent cures of one complaint they now the needs of more troublesome and permanent disorders. The price of our PAD brings i within the reach of all, and it will annually save many times its cost in doctors' bills, medicines and

Hy anxions, and when twelve came ty could invent; but all to no pur. CAUTION, ney Fade now seeking a sale on without any signs of the trusuis, she pose. Rodney Cleveland was either our repatation, we deem it due the afflicted to warn them. Ask for DAY'S KIDNEY PAD, and take no commy at the Gazarra don Omee.

deb goodless thepercised analy and come them as on as ting do. Soud

ON MARKET BY MALE

New Advertisements.

Lewis & Carhart, GROCERS. WHOLESALE

KNOXVILLE, TENN.

We have unsurpassed facilities for supplying the trade with

STAPLE & FANCY GROCERIES. At New York prices-freight added.

AGENTS FOR HOLSTON SALT AND PLASTER CO.

LENOIR'S and ROCKFORD YARNS. 227 Plenty of Storage Room. Orders by mail carefully and premptly attended to. angle by

KNOXVILLE

and Machine Company,

Successors to ROGAN, KELLRY & CO.,

KNOIVILLE, - - TENNESSEE.

MANUFACTURERS OF # -EVERY DESCRIPTION.

Circular Saw Mills. And all kinds of Castings for up right Sans Mills and Carrages.

Steam Engines Built and Repaired.

HOLLOW-WARE A SPECIALTY, AND THE NICEST AND BEST MADE IN THE SOUTH.

Fronts and Grates of all Sizes,

Side Hill Plows and Plow Castings, Cane Mills, for from this day to the day of my she was married, "let me go and in- Railroad Castings, Brass Castings, Door Sills, Window Sills, Sash Weights, Columns, Street and Ventilating Grates, and Builders' Castings generally, AGENTS FOR THE

Eclipse Double Turbine Water-Wheel. Stillwell's Lime Extracting Reaters, and Judson's Standard Governors for Steam Engines. Castings of every description made to order and Machinery of all kinds Repaired preparty and with inputch. See We invite persons having any class of work to do in our line to give as a call. mar: 973

HOPE & BRO.,

Watchmakers and Jewelers.

COR. GAY AND CLINCH STS. KNOXNILLE, TENN.,

Keeps in stock a full line of.

Watches Jewelry, Solid Silver, Silver-Plated Ware Superior Table Cutlery, &c.

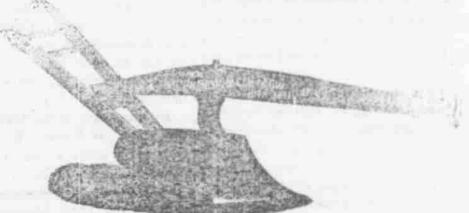

gar Repairing and Engraving skillfully executed upon reasonable terms, while events by small will yes

GEO. BROWN.

KNOXVILLE, - - TENNESSEE

General Agent for the Sale of the

Which is fast superceding all other two and three-horse Plaws. The Best Plow in the World!

Has the sole agency for the sale of the STUDEBAKER WAGONS price reduced to $79 se; including brake on boa and running goar and spring seat.

Sole agents in East Tennessee for the cate of HUSHELL, & CO TONEW MARRILLOR" TERRER.

ERS, Horse Powers and the repairs for the same. This new machine of Hussell's have a nieter builts and cleaner attachment, which can be attached at any time at a cost of only $60, and is far the beautiful terres.

it factory prices. John Deers Sicel Plows, Coate's Look-Lever Rakes, Similar Straw Suiters, Fish llover, Timothy, Orchard Grass and Gorman Millett. We keep the Largout Steek at Seed, kept by any ones in the West, and sell for the very lowest cash price.

Commission Merchant, Sell all kinds of Country Froduce and make liberal advancements. MILL MACHINERY of every kind turnished, also Steam Engines.
All business entrusted to us will receive prompt attention.

GEO. BROWN, E- MI - WHELL I I A THE SE

WHOLESALE Produce and Commission Merchant,

Wheat, Corn, Oats, Hay, Flour, Bacon, Dried Fruit, &c.

CASH ADVANCED ON PRODUCE IN STORE.

Warehouse: Old Virginia Depot, on Railroad Track. KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE.

J. W. GAUT & SON, NO. 203 GAY ST., KNOXVILLE, TENN.

Receives Consignments of all kinds of Produce, and Pays WHEAT, CORN, DATS, RYE, HAY, BACON, LARD, FLOUR,

DRIED FRUIT, FEATHERS, &c.,